Dear Mr. Yablonsky:

Many thanks for sending to Centurion a copy of the Writ of Mandate which you filed on 10/13/16. While I am still tied up with work on another case, I will be moving on to a more detailed review of your case within the next month or so. When I received your Writ late last week, I did go through the documents you had sent to us which related to evidence and lab testing. Those documents appear to include several of the test results you requested with your Writ, but the Writ seems to be a good and comprehensive summary of all the items of evidence which can be important in your quest for exoneration. I look forward to hearing from you as to the court's response to the Writ.

I am also still hoping to hear from you concerning the investigation of the "Cold Case Team" and possible manufacturing of evidence. Please let me know if you obtain any news articles or other information about the team.

Yours truly,

Carol Kent
